

Making Out in the Mainstream: A Comprehensive Guide to Public Affection

Making out in public has become increasingly common in recent years, but it can still be a controversial topic. Some people believe that it is inappropriate to display affection in public, while others believe that it is a natural expression of love and intimacy.

This comprehensive guide will provide you with everything you need to know about making out in public, from the legal implications to the social etiquette.

The legal implications of making out in public vary from state to state. In some states, it is perfectly legal to make out in public, while in other states it may be considered indecent exposure.
