Sophie Ramos is a woman who has dedicated her life to helping others. As a nurse, she has cared for countless patients, and as a humanitarian, she has worked to improve the lives of people around the world. Her story is an inspiration to us all.

Early Life and Education

Sophie Ramos was born in the Philippines in 1964. She grew up in a poor family, but she always dreamed of making a difference in the world. After graduating from high school, she attended nursing school and became a registered nurse.

Nursing Career

Sophie Ramos began her nursing career in the Philippines. She worked in a variety of settings, including hospitals, clinics, and schools. She quickly became known for her compassion and dedication to her patients.

In 1995, Sophie Ramos moved to the United States. She worked as a nurse in several hospitals in California, and she also volunteered her time at a local homeless shelter.

Humanitarian Work

In 2001, Sophie Ramos founded the Angels of Hope Foundation. The foundation provides medical care, food, and shelter to people in need around the world. Sophie has led the foundation on numerous missions to countries such as Haiti, India, and the Philippines.

The Angels of Hope Foundation has made a significant difference in the lives of many people. The foundation has provided medical care to over 100,000 people, and it has built schools and orphanages in several countries.

Awards and Recognition

Sophie Ramos has received numerous awards for her work. In 2006, she was named one of the "Top 100 Global Thinkers" by Foreign Policy magazine. In 2008, she was awarded the "Presidential Medal of Freedom" by President George W. Bush.

Sophie Ramos is a remarkable woman who has dedicated her life to helping others. She is a true inspiration to us all. Her story shows us that anyone can make a difference in the world, no matter how small.
